Later Details of the Disorder.

Noos.—The following details of the disorder in the Northeastern Arrodlssments, are gleaned from the newspapers. Rochefort was arrested as he was on the point of entering a political meeting in the Pine de Flauave running from Belleville to La Villette. Although there was a great crowd of yearle present, unjuly his own to La Villette. Although there was a great crowd of people present, mainly his own partisans, he made no resistance, and no appeals to the crowd. As soon as the arrest was made known to the meeting the wildest scenes occurred. Gustave Flourens, who presided, rose, excitedly drew a sword, fired his revolver, and declared the insurrection had begun. The meeting broke up in disorder, and the crowd under the leadership of Flourens, immediately proceeded to harricade the streets. This was accomplished without the loss of any time, by the confiscation of omnibuses and other vehicles from the stables in the neighborhood. A commissary of police, who was accepted.
